Illinois Republican Party Bylaws

ARTICLE II. MEMBERS OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

- A. Election. The members of the State Committee shall be the Republican State Central Committeemen or Committeewomen who are elected or appointed as provided by law and these Bylaws.
1. No individual shall be eligible to serve as a member of the State Central Committee unless the individual has voted in the Republican Primary Election in each of the three (3) most recent General Primary Elections held in the State of Illinois as evidenced by the individual having requested a Republican ballot according to the official voting records of the election jurisdiction in which the individual resides. This General Primary Election voting requirement shall not apply to an election in which an individual: (a) who did not vote and can demonstrate they were on active military duty at the time of the election, (b) was not of legal voting age at the time of the election, or (c) was not a resident of the State of Illinois at the time of the General Primary Election and the individual can show proof of the voting Republican in the General Primary Election of the State in which the individual previously resided.
 2. State Central Committeemen shall be elected in the same manner as provided by law for the election of officers of county central committees and such election shall follow the election of officers of county central committees. Each elected precinct committeeman who is present at a county convention shall cast their vote for State Central Committeeman, one vote for each ballot cast (i.e., “weighted vote”) in their respective precinct in the last preceding General Primary Election. The “weighted vote” for vacant precincts, and precincts not represented at the county conventions by elected precinct committeemen, shall be allocated to each candidate for State Central Committeeman based on the proportion of weighted votes the candidate(s) received from the elected precinct committeemen present at the county convention.
 3. Term limits. No member of the State Central Committee; deputy member of the state central committee; National Committeeman or Committeewoman; or State Chairman shall serve more than eight (8) consecutive years in the same office. This section is effective on January 1, 2015 but shall not apply to terms that are the result of vacancies or terms that have commenced prior to the effective date.
